BOARD DECISION

MOTION FOR REHEARING

The Board of Selectmen on July 25, 1988 filed a request for rehearing in the above matter stating incorrect information on the permanent part-time employees had been furnished at the July 7, 1988 hearing; information on which PELRB found sufficient members and community of interest and a unit formed under RSA 273-A:8. The Board further alleged it had not had the opportunity to properly prepare for the hearing and was not aware of the statistical documentation presented.

The Rollinsford Police Association filed objection to the rehearing request stating that all parties had received adequate notice of the hearing and had the opportunity to prepare its case and felt that the Town was merely attempting to stall the process.

PELRB reviewed the testimony and evidence presented at the original hearing and considered the Town's objection to the unit and Order.

After considering the above and in accordance with Pub 205.05, PELRB exercises its right and HEREBY DENIES the Motion for Rehearing and reaffirms its original decision No. 88-52 approving a unit of all full-time and part-time police officers.

Signed this 23rd day of August, 1988.
